

Burnout Webinar

The COVID-19 pandemic has put health and social care professionals under increasing pressure. This population is already acknowledged to be at risk of burnout.

The Here For You team will be hosting an online webinar for staff members to discuss the concept of Burnout, how to recognise the symptoms, a space for reflection on what Burnout means to you. We will consider some coping strategies and also explore ways in which to identify when more help is needed and where to access this support.

The webinar will include a presentation on Burnout and some space for reflection

This interactive webinar is suitable for all staff members who either have an interest in this topic or may be wondering how to support others who may be experiencing these difficulties.
